Now it’s time for you to share your reflections about the show. We want to hear what you thought about the singing, dancing, acting, and visual arts!

Assignment #1: Reflections

Grab a sheet of paper, a pencil, and a family member and let's get started!

1) What was your favorite song and how did it make you feel? (My favorite song was _____ and it made me feel.)

Replay the song you chose and clap out the tempo (Have someone at home help you stay on rhythm) How did you do?

2) Who was your favorite character, and why? (My favorite character was _____ because _____.)

3) This show has so many puppets! Puppets are controlled by puppeteers, who move them and perform their voices. Some of the puppets were ligo the bird, a camel, and even an elephant! Did you have a favorite puppet? (My favorite puppet was _____ because it could _____.)

4) Look at the way the characters move- what styles of dance do you see? Where in the world might you see people dancing like that? (I saw _____ types of moves in the dances. Many people that live in _____ dance like that.)

Assignment #2: Creative

If you could put a new puppet into the show, what would you create? Make your own puppet with household materials! Use the link below to give you inspiration and show you how to build your own puppet.

OK, now, it's showtime!

Throw on a costume! Build a pretend set with what you have at home and perform your favorite song for the whole family with your puppet.

Feel free to record yourself performing and share the videos with your Performing Arts Instructors!
